This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFACE.

Since the publication of the sixth edition of the Finding Lists, in 1884, the Library has issued three annual supplements and six bi-monthly bulletins, giving the titles of all accessions, to February 1, 1889. Owing to the rapid growth of the Library (which now numbers over 145,000 volumes) it has been deemed advisable, in preparing a new edition of the Finding List, to issue the same in parts. The first of these parts, containing a catalogue of English Prose Fiction and Juvenile Books, is now offered to our readers, and will be followed by class lists of History, Biography, Travels, Arts and Sciences, and other subjects. The bulletins, giving lists of new books added, will be issued as before.

In this catalogue of English Prose Fiction, books are entered under the name of the author, when known; under the pseudonym, when the real name is not to be ascertained; and also under the title of the book, followed by the name of the author, when known. Books especially adapted for young readers are designated by the letter "H" before the shelf-number. The titles of many books, in other departments of the Library suitable for the young, have also been included, as was done in former lists. Titles of worn-out books, which cannot be replaced, have been omitted from this catalogue.

In applying for books in the circulating department, it is best to write on a slip the numbers of several books wanted, and the attendant will give the first book on the list which is in, and return the list for future use.

Books marked with a star (*) do not circulate.

The Library has established delivery stations in various parts of the city, where books may be returned and exchange, free of charge.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE BY-LAWS.

The Library and Reading-Room are open on all secular days, other than legal holidays, from 9 o'clock A.M., to 10 o'clock P.M., except that the Circulating Department is closed at 8:30 P.M. On Sundays and holidays the Reading and Reference Rooms are open from 9 A.M., to 6 P.M.

Any resident of Chicago may draw books from the Library by giving satisfactory security, for which blank forms are furnished at the registry desk, and by registering his or her name. The same privileges are extended to persons residing outside of the city limits of Chicago, in Cook County, who shall pay the sum of three dollars per annum, or who are engaged in a permanent business, or pay city taxes, in Chicago, subject to the same regulations that apply to the actual residents of the city: provided, that the guarantor for such person be an actual resident of the city.

Each person entitled to draw books is supplied with a Library card, which must be presented whenever a book is taken, renewed, or returned; and if lost, will not be replaced until thirty days after notice of loss has been given.

The holder of a card is entitled to draw one book, if octavo or larger size; or two books of smaller size than octavo, they being the same work. Books may be retained two weeks, and may be once renewed for the same period.

A fine of three cents a day shall be paid on each work which is overdue, and no other book will be delivered on the card until the fine is paid.

Books of recent purchase, labeled "Seven-Day Book," can not be retained more than one week, and can not be renewed.

Encyclopædias, dictionaries, bound volumes of periodicals, and other works of reference, elaborately illustrated books, and such others as may be unsuited for general circulation, can be used only in the Library rooms.

Delinquents will be notified, through the mail, on the sixth day after the delinquency has occurred; and one week later, if the book is not returned, the guarantor will be notified.

Writing or marking in books is prohibited; and all injury to books beyond reasonable wear and all losses, shall be promptly adjusted to the satisfaction of the Librarian.
